Home Repairs and Modifications Checklist

This is a two-part form. Use Part I to check for ways you can make your home safer and more functional. (Remember that not all of these items will apply to you.) Then, if you decide to hire a contractor or handyman, use Part II as a guide in making a smart selection.

Part I: Check for Ways to Make Your Home Safer and More Functional

	High Priority	Low Priority	Doesn't Apply
Basic home upkeep:
Repair or upgrade . . .
✓ roof, gutters
✓ stairs, railings
✓ plumbing
✓ electrical system
✓ heating and air conditioning
✓ appliances
Safety improvements:
Reset water heater to 120° or less
Install or upgrade . . .
✓ non-slip, non-glare flooring
✓ low-pile carpeting
✓ handrails on stairs
✓ grab bars in bathroom
✓ lighting, task-lighting, nightlights
✓ view-hole in front door
✓ locks or deadbolts on doors and windows
Accessibility and independence:
Add . . .
✓ kitchen easy-grip knobs, pulls
✓ rocker or touch-type switches
✓ wheelchair or walker access

Resource no. SRL-FCL004. Copyright © 2010, IlluminAge Resource Libraries, www.illuminAge.com. Provided online for personal use only. All other rights reserved.

Rearrange things for one-story living

Comfort and convenience:

Add . . .

- ✓ low-upkeep landscaping
- ✓ cordless phone
- ✓ automatic garage door opener

Energy efficiency:

Install . . .

- ✓ storm windows, double-paned windows
- ✓ weather-stripping and other insulation
- ✓ more efficient heating, air conditioning
- ✓ insulation on water heater, pipes
- ✓ more efficient appliances

High Priority	Low Priority	Doesn't Apply

Part II: Checklist for Hiring a Contractor

If you're planning to hire a contractor or handyman, be sure to do your homework first!

- ❑ Get recommendations from friends, family, reputable local merchants.
- ❑ Make certain the contractor is bonded and licensed.
- ❑ Ask for at least three recent customer references, then call each one.
- ❑ Check with the Better Business Bureau to make sure the record is clean.
- ❑ Get the price, completion date, scope of work, and other details in writing.
- ❑ If appropriate, ask for two or more bids, then compare.

Notes